Profile

Mr. Koresh is a multidisciplinary lawyer ("ALL-AROUND PLAYER") and among the well-known and most influential ones in the Israeli legal arena.

Mr. Koresh has an exceptional reputation in multiple areas of law, which he has accumulated over many years of comprehensive, complex, and varied professional activity.

Mr. Koresh has unique expertise in all aspects of Commercial Law with extensive experience in various aspects of the real estate field.

Mr. Koresh's ability to execute complex transactions, in an ever-evolving business and regulatory environment, has made him an essential point of contact for his clients, which are among the largest corporations in the Israeli market, and abroad. Within this framework, Mr. Koresh provides his clients with comprehensive strategic, regulatory, economic commercial and financial advice.

In recent years, he has represented a long list of transactions, projects, and procedures in the fields of real estate, infrastructure, communications, antitrust, gas, energy and more, among the most significant and precedent-setting in the Israeli market.

Mr. Koresh represents his clients in their day-to-day dealings with regulatory bodies, including representing legislative and privatization procedures that have a significant impact on corporate activity.

In addition, Mr. Koresh represents senior executives in both the private and public sectors, in complex and sensitive proceedings; leads multinational transactions, while crafting creative solutions that combine a wide range of legal practices; represents intergenerational transfer procedures, advises family businesses, and specializes in crisis management, representing businesses and legal crisis issues.

Mr. Koresh advises and represents his clients in alternative dispute resolution mechanisms (arbitration and mediation) and has a unique specialization in political litigation.
