

Hadar Sive

Partner

T +972.3.694.4131

F +972.3.691.2948

hsive@fbclawyers.com

Profile

Ms. Hadar Sive is a partner in our firm's Corporate practice. Ms. Sive has significant experience and reputation of over two decades in the field of commercial law, with an emphasis on the sectors of financial regulation, insurance, mergers and acquisitions, the capital market, corporate financing and securities.

Ms. Sive has unique expertise in leading the processes of obtaining permits and licenses for complex merger and acquisition transactions; she accompanies institutional entities in their entry into the field of financial regulation; specializes in the establishment of joint ventures and collaborations of financial bodies, including the establishment of investment houses and regulated financial services, the establishment of digital insurance companies, the establishment of crypto investment houses, and more; advises local and international companies in connection with financing and refinancing transactions, corporate governance, corporate reorganization; accompanies leading insurance and communications companies in all aspects of their operations; advises in the framework of current commercial agreements; and more.

Ms. Sive provides ongoing legal support and advice to her clients in their business activities in connection with all relevant parties, including banks, institutional bodies, the Capital Market Authority, the Stock Exchange, the Securities Authority, the Bank of Israel, the Ministry of Communications, the Israel Lands Administration, the Ministry of Health. public bodies, various regulatory bodies, and more.

Ms. Sive's clients include public and private buyers, Israeli and international investment funds and target companies, credit and payment service companies, insurance companies, insuretech, pension funds, provident funds, communications companies, hospitals, a diverse array of commercial entities, and other financial bodies.

Practice Areas

Mergers & Acquisitions
Capital Markets
East Asia Desk

Bar Admission

Israel, 2005

Education

Haifa University, LL.B. (Magna Cum Laude), 2004

Haifa University, B.A. (Economics), 2004