

Noa Barhum
Partner

T +972.3.694.4290

F +972.3.606.9616

nbarhum@fbclawyers.com

Profile

Mrs. Barhum is a partner in FBC's Litigation Department, providing legal counsel to individuals, private and public companies in both commercial and civil litigation; including claims filed against directors and functionaries as well as derivative suits.

Mrs. Barhum's unique practice concentrates on Tech Litigation field, which encompassing both litigation and the hi-tech industry, and offers substantial value in addressing legal conflicts that emerge in tech companies at various stages of their growth.

Mrs. Barhum is known for her extensive experience and strong reputation in handling complex litigation with innovative solutions to unprecedented market challenges. Within this framework, Mrs. Barhum consults clients on a variety of complex disputes in tech, including licensing disputes; investment rounds with complex financing agreements; earn-out payment disputes following an acquisition; and employee share option plan disputes.

Prior to joining FBC, Mrs. Barhum was an associate in Litigation departments of leading Tel Aviv law firms, and served as a legal assistant to the Attorney General, Adv. Yehuda Weinstein.

Practice Areas

Litigation
Class Actions & Derivative Suits
Arbitration & Mediation

Bar Admission

Israel, 2007

Education

Tel Aviv University, LL.M. (Commercial Law)
(Magna Cum Laude), 2011

Tel Aviv University, LL.B. (Magna Cum Laude), 2006