Profile

FBC's East Asia Desk offers professional and customized legal services to businesses operating in East Asian markets, as well as to East Asian entities and individuals operating in Israel or that seek strategic partnerships and investment opportunities in the Israeli market.

The multidisciplinary team is experienced in advising on matters and transactions with parties located in a broad range of East Asian markets, including China, Hong Kong, Japan, Singapore, Korea and Vietnam.

FBC has exceptional ability in combining its significant expertise and strength in areas of practice which are directly impacted by cross-border transactions, such as M&A, banking & finance, capital markets, competition & antitrust, cyber & IT, hi-tech, tax, immigration, labor & employment, IP, energy & infrastructure, investment funds, regulatory, and other specialty areas.

FBC has considerable experience in commercial transactions involving leading East Asian and Israeli players, and offers its clients a team of highly professional attorneys, who have familiarity with both the East Asian and Israeli markets, and are positioned to identify and create business opportunities, assist in bridging the cultural differences, and close deals successfully.

The Firm's dispute resolution team has vast experience advising multinational corporations from East Asia in defending class action claims and in commercial disputes.

We are pleased to be among the recommended local law firms of the Chinese commercial attaché in Israel - see here.

The Firm maintains close relationships with leading local law firms, for the benefit of our clients. In addition, Adv. Tali Michlin Twake, an FBC attorney, is resident in Singapore.
