

Hotels & Tourism

Profile

FBC's Hotels and Tourism team provides creative and practical solutions and counsel to owners, operators, developers, investors, lenders, franchisors and franchisees, service providers, and other stakeholders in the industry.

Our team includes lawyers experienced in hospitality, leisure and tourism, as well as members of our real estate, corporate, labor and employment, finance, immigration, regulatory, tax, competition and antitrust, intellectual property, data privacy, and dispute resolution practices.

We help clients capitalize on opportunities in the hospitality industry while complying with regulatory requirements. Our team is experienced in working with the relevant Israeli governmental authorities, including the Ministry of Tourism, the Israel Land Authority, municipalities and licensing authorities, and building and planning authorities.

We advise on development; acquisition and divestment; operations and management; corporate and joint ventures; finance and restructuring; franchise, licensing and outsourcing; commercial agreements; labor, employment and immigration; data privacy; dispute resolution; and intellectual property, advertising and brand; as well as on technology matters which have become an integral part of the Hotels, Leisure and Tourism industry.
